Samsar Samsar is a fictitious planet in the Star Trek universe which is populated by sentient cosmic entities similar to the Star Trek extraterrestrial lifeforms such as the Borg and the Klingons. Samsar is mentioned in the earliest episode of the original series (“The Changeling”), where the Farragut encounters it. It was mentioned later in the Star Trek: The Next Generation episode “Homeworld”, when the Farragut enters the planet. Later, in the Star Trek: Deep Space Nine episode “Tears of the Prophets”, the Defiant is sent to the planet by the Enterprise as part of a mission to remove a weapon of mass destruction from it. It is the home planet of the Nerazians, who are a race of humanoid aliens that live in a crystalline world. Commander James T. Kirk later tells Spock that his planet of Vulcan was destroyed and that he remembers Samsar from his childhood.
